

Claire Laughlin

Training, Development and Organizational Transformation Services

Claire Laughlin, MA, is a dynamic and engaging trainer and consultant who uses experiential and innovative methods to help teams and organizations achieve results. With every client, she seeks to build individual leadership potential, teach positive communication habits, and enhance trust among and between team members.

As an independent consultant and trainer with 20 years of diverse experience, Claire brings to MRG a background in management, a relentless dedication to transformation, and a passion for improving relationships to all of her work.

With her master's degree in Communication, Claire began her career as a college and university communication instructor. She soon found her niche as an organizational trainer and consultant. Claire is fully committed to working with clients as they cultivate practices aimed at making their organizations healthy and highly productive.

As a founding member of the Public Dialogue Consortium and a trained mediator, Claire has had extensive experience in designing and facilitating difficult conversations with groups of every size. She has worked with many City governments including the Cities of Cupertino, Milpitas, Mountain View, Redwood City, Modesto and Fremont. She is also a Leadership Challenge Facilitator, and a certified Development Dimensions International facilitator.

From leadership development, to communication and coaching essentials, to project management, Claire works with public, private and non-profit organizations and has taught at seven different colleges and universities in California.
